Description

The lovely well kept house is priced way below the investment made on it. It is a home on two levels. The top level being a timber frame construction and the bottom a regular bricks and mortar type of build. The land area is approximately 2800m<sup>2</sup> and enjoys views down a vast creek and valley all the way down to the sea. The views are guaranteed! The slope of the existing land means that any possibility of the view being taken away will be nil. Please have a look at the photos of the property and please enquire for further information. The home is currently British owned and payment in pound sterling should be acceptable.

Price: 250,000 EUR

Location
